Michael Huang

541-405-8537
michzihuang@gmail.com

Summary

I have excelled in all high level Computer Science coursework and am interested in working in the industry. I've trained new employees, aided new students, and have actively applied customer service experience to team/client related activities by taking lead, strong communication focus, and firm decision-making

Education

Oregon State University
Bachelor's of Computer Science
Graduating June 2020

Employment History

Oregon State University
Student Technician
June 2017 – Present
- Translated technical jargon to assist users of all competency
- Worked with multiple departments to assure efficiency and functionality to faculty/students
- Exercised public speaking and communication skills by reporting progress to supervisor and presenting to varying of customer backgrounds
- Assist new employees and ease tensions between trainee – customer interactions

Technical Skills

Proficient: C, C++, git
Familiar: CSS, HTML, Java, Javascript, Python, SQL, PHP
Customer service/Communication Skills

Projects

Battleship – CS362 – Software Engineering II
- Java based implementation with Agile design philosophy and two-week sprint implementations

OSUFoodie – CS340 – Databases
- Restaurant Database using PHP/SQL for server and website design